1080° Avalanche

Storms onto Nintendo GameCube

Danger is the name of the game in 1080° Avalanche. Huge air, massive drop-offs, deep powder and the nastiest tricks come together in one of the tightest snowboarding games available. 1080° Avalanche is a worthy successor to the Nintendo® 64 version of the game, with a wide variety of play modes, challenges and secrets to keep you on your toes.

- Constantly changing environments make every run an adrenaline-packed thrill ride. Contend with massive avalanches, rockslides, cave-ins, bridge collapses and environments teeming with wildlife and skiers.
- A sick trick system lets you flip, spin, grab, grind and tweak your way to glory.
- Game modes include Match Race, Gate Challenge, Time Trial, Multiplayer and Trick Attack.
- Race against your friends in intense four-player races. Connect up to four Nintendo GameCube systems in LAN mode for the ultimate race!
